

The Best Hard Cider. For Men. No, Really.

Because there's more than just Magner's and Woodchuck. And it's a thing, apparently.

By Leslie Pariseau

Foggy Ridge Serious Cider

Full of yellow apple notes with a super acidic finish, this Virginia-made cider is for those who have previously shunned the category. This expression of Foggy Ridge is made with four different apple varieties including Ashmead Kernel and Rocksbury Red. It's dry, with small bubbles like a low-dosage Champagne, which means it would pair well with oysters, sushi, and a nice, crisp fall salad.

↑ Featured in the November 2011 Esquire Magazine

FOGGY RIDGE
CIDER